Description of how council membership reflects ethnic/racial and socioeconomic community served by the school and of efforts to include them:

A review of the above data indicates SAC membership reflects the racial and ethnic composition of our school population.

Describe the election process of each group except "other citizens." For this group, describe the selection process.

Teachers (includes counselors, media specialists, etc.):

Nominations/volunteers were open to all faculty members. Elections were held, as needed, to determine grade level representatives.

Classified:

Nominations/volunteers were open to all classified Staff and those whom expressed an interest were invited to participate to be elected to serve on the SAC committee.

Parents:

Nominations/volunteers were open to all parents via newsletter and school announcements. All parents who expressed an interest were invited to participate and be elected to serve on SAC.

Other Citizen:

Community representatives were selected through a process facilitated by the principal.

Students:

Grade 8 student representatives were nominated and elected by their grade level teachers. High School student representatives were nominated and elected by their classmates at their grade level meetings.

Chairperson:

Nominations were requested from SAC during the first meeting and elected by council members.
