Description of how council membership reflects ethnic/racial and socioeconomic community served by the school and of efforts to include them:

The membership of the School Advisory Council represents the economic, ethnic, and racial community of Wilkinson Elementary School. A wide range of socioeconomic levels are represented in our parent, staff, and community members. Wilkinson actively seeks members for the School Advisory Council by advertising through school-based communication and directly inviting stakeholder to attend. There are no limitations based on race, ethnicity, or economic status – all stakeholders and invited and encourage to attend.

Describe the election process of each group except "other citizens." For this group, describe the selection process.

Teachers (includes counselors, media specialists, etc.):

Teachers representatives are elected by consensus vote of their peers.

Classified:

Classified representatives are elected by consensus vote of their peers.

Parents:

Open positions are advertised through SAC and other school-based communication. Parent members are elected by their peers.

Other Citizen:

Citizens are recommended and appointed by the principal with input and approval of SAC.
