and president.

I AM THE NEXT WORLD CHANGER

I have...

a solution to a problem.

a heart to be shared.

a dance to behold

a song to be sung.

a hand to be held.

a great value to give to the world.

a destiny that needs to be fulfilled.

a future that needs to be explored.

and a new sound to be released in the earth.

I have greatness within me.

Never underestimate the power of a Booker Tornado.

I will change the landscape of our world!
