

PARENT & FAMILY ENGAGEMENT SERIES

VAN WEZEL artworks
ANYWHERE

The ABC's of Behavior

Nov. 9th 4:30-6:00 PM

Elise Summa, the lead clinician at the Center for Autism and Related Services in Jacksonville, will address common behavior challenges. These include aggression, communication, how to wait, attention-seeking behaviors and task completion. This facilitated webinar will provide opportunities for families to ask questions and engage with Student Services and FDLRS Staff during and at the conclusion of the webinar. Click here to Register.

Van Wezel Family Literacy Night - Bilingual

Nov. 12th 6:00-7:00 PM

Artworks Anywhere Night lets you play together throughout the arts! Professional teaching artists' will show you how to support literacy at home. Families will explore ways to read, create and share, learn to act parts of a story, draw a setting, and move like your favorite character.

Click here to Register.

Noche de Alfabetización Familiar de Van Wezel- ¡VIRTUALMENTE! "Artworks Anywhere Night" les permite aprender y jugar juntos a través de las artes. Los Artistas Decentes de Van Wezel le mostrarán cómo apoyar la alfabetización en casa. Las familias explorarán formas de leer, crear y compartir. Aprenda a actuar partes de una historia. Dibuja un escenario. Muévete como tu personaje favorito. Esta sesión interactiva utilizará salas privadas de Zoom para grupos pequeños. ¡Las familias tendrán la oportunidad de registrarse para recibir LIBROS GRATIS!

Pulse aquí para registrarse!

Art Break with the Ringling

Nov. 13th & Dec. 4th
12:30-1:15 PM

If you are a parent feeling overwhelmed and in need of a break, take 45 minutes over lunch and virtually join the Ringling Education Team as we slow down and look closely at art from the museum collection. During this session, we will talk about two artworks while modeling specific methods for communication with your children that can help you support their learning needs. Please register in advance for one or both sessions.

Nov. 13th - Click here to Register.

Dec. 4th - Click here to Register.

The Ringling

THE JOHN & MABLE RINGLING MUSEUM OF ART
STATE ART MUSEUM OF FLORIDA | FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY

The Anxious Child

Nov. 16th 4:30-6:00 PM

Marlena Jenkins, lead clinician at UF Jacksonville, will discuss behaviors that are common across the board when we talk about anxiety disorders. She will provide strategies and techniques that can be implemented, either at home or at school. This facilitated webinar will provide opportunities for families to ask questions and engage with Student Services and FDLRS Staff during and at the conclusion of the webinar.

Click here to Register.

Growing Socially-Emotionally Healthy Kids

Nov. 30th 4:30-6:00 PM

Amy Lane, one of the Program Administrators for FDLRS, will focus on the developmental stages of children, how to encourage positive behavior in our children, how to talk about redirecting their actions when they are not doing quite what we want them to do, different types of parenting styles and how we encourage appropriate social learning. This facilitated webinar will provide opportunities for families to ask questions and engage with Student Services and FDLRS Staff during and at the conclusion of the webinar.

Click here to Register.

MOTE Marine Laboratory

Nov. 19th 5:00 - 5:30 PM

Mote Marine Laboratory will host a fun science evening for families of the Sarasota County School District. Join via Zoom to explore Life Cycles of the Sea. This will be a fun evening to engage in science happening right in your backyard.

Click here to Register.

Keeping Your Kids Safe Online

Nov. 23rd 4:30-6:00 PM

Technology Specialists will cover basic rules to keep kids safe online, social media, cell phone safety, other possible dangers and resources. This facilitated webinar will provide opportunities for families to ask questions and engage with Student Services and FDLRS Staff during and at the conclusion of the webinar.

Click here to Register.

Instructional Practices

Dec. 7th 4:30-6:00 PM

Jan Oberschlake, Virtual Learning Coordinator with FDLRS, will be discussing instructional practices which include Multi-Tiered Systems of Support (MTSS), Differentiated Instruction, Universal Design for Learning, Assistive Technology, Modifications and Accommodations. This facilitated webinar will provide opportunities for families to ask questions and engage with Student Services and FDLRS Staff during and at the conclusion of the webinar.

Click here to Register.

The Patterson Foundation wants to invest in people to provide increased knowledge and personal development, which, in turn, will make our community stronger. Stronger Me, Stronger We provides opportunities for personal growth and connection at no cost as a gift from The Patterson Foundation. Click here to learn more.