CERTIFICATE OF EXEMPTION FROM FLORIDA PUBLIC RECORDS LAW

Instructions: Chapter 119 of Florida Statutes addresses public records and their availability for inspection. Exemptions to the requirements of this law are provided for certain individuals, their spouses, and children. Examples of such exemptions are:

- Various personnel in the criminal justice system - including active or former law enforcement personnel, judges, state attorneys, prosecutors, correctional and correctional probation officers
- Firefighters
- Code enforcement officers
- Department of Children and Family Services personnel whose duties include the investigation of abuse, neglect, exploitation, fraud, theft, or other criminal activities
- Department of Health personnel whose duties are to support the investigation of child abuse or neglect
- Department of Revenue or local government personnel whose responsibilities include revenue collection and enforcement or child support enforcement

If you are a current District employee who is exempted in F.S. 119.071, or are the spouse or child of someone who is exempted in F.S. 119.071, complete the information below and sign and return the form to Human Resources. This exemption will be noted in your personnel file and in the District's Business System.

I certify under penalty of perjury that portions of my personal information are exempt pursuant to F.S. 119.071.
