This subsection allows the use of metal detectors or specially trained animals in the search for illegally possessed substances or objects.

Textbooks and Instructional Materials:

The school, through taxpayer's dollars, purchases textbooks and instructional materials for student use. When distributed, these materials are to be used for student learning and are to be returned in the condition in which they were loaned. As per Florida School Law, damage to textbooks and materials (including technology) is evaluated and a fine is assessed. Each parent and student to whom textbooks and materials have been issued is liable for any loss or destruction. District policy states that the fine will be levied based upon the condition of the book and materials. Damaged books, by law, cannot be given to the parent or student after the fine is paid. Library books are checked out for two weeks and may be renewed. Textbooks are checked out through the media center for the year. Students with lost, damaged, or overdue books/textbooks will not be allowed to check out additional materials. Any student with financial obligations will not be allowed to participate in activities outside of course requirements.

High school students are not allowed to visit BrMS during school hours. All visitors to Brookside's campus must be with a badged staff member at all times.

Volunteers:

BrMS encourages volunteering. We believe that volunteers are an invaluable asset. All volunteers must sign in and out in the school office each day and must wear an identifying nametag while on campus. Sarasota County Schools volunteer guidelines require that all volunteers who give their time without pay to assist the school must be District approved. This requires a yearly District on-line application. Every person must apply/reapply each year. You can complete the District online application at BrMS. Volunteers assist at BrMS in many ways, including participating in SAC, chaperoning field trips, tutoring, and helping in the classroom and media center.
