

PROCESS TO PROVIDE ACADEMIC SUPPORT FOR QUARANTINED STUDENTS

Student tests positive for Covid-19 or is quarantined through contact tracing

Teachers of record receive email notification of students who have been quarantined

Day 1 of Quarantine

Students will personally contact their teachers to inform them that they will be working online.

Students who are quarantined will have access to instructional materials throughout the day and after school. Academic support for students is available in the following formats;

- Through teachers' online platforms such as Blackboard, OneNote, Teams, or teacher website through which students can access assignments and resources.
- Throughout the day or after school with core content teachers who have been designated to provide additional assistance to students through Zoom.
 - Mathematics - William Deller
 - ELA - Jennifer Deal & Nicole Kennedy
 - Social Studies - Cymon Copley-Pomerleau
 - Science - Judith Petty & Katherine Moore

ESE & ELL Liaison coordinates services for students with an IEP and/or ELL services

Throughout the Duration of Quarantine

Student is responsive and completes work posted online until their return.

HOWEVER

Students who do not have access to a computer, should notify a teacher, school counselor, or administrator to acquire a loaner computer for the duration of the quarantine. A quarantine coordinator will reach out to the student.

If you need assistance reaching a teacher or need a laptop, you can contact, Drew Grissell, the quarantine coordinator directly.
