	For the past 3 years our athletic department has been in compliance in the area of Gender Equity. Five years ago there was a 12% gap from male/female participation to enrollment ratio; Four years ago a 9% gap; in my 3 years as AD there has been an average of a 4% gap female/ male at the varsity 1. The Athletic Department will continue to promote female athletics thru school based communications, recognitions, Special Events and Awards Programs. 2. The Athletic Department will work with the Administration toward hiring the best qualified coaches, and in-school teachers/employees as coaches, to promote female athletics. 3. End of year Spirit Week Activities, and The Blue and Silver games included female athletic events, which encourage female students to participate on teams. 4. To date, approximately 26 females and 4 males have signed up for Competitive Cheerleading for next school year. 5. The Athletic Department has hired more female coaches, which will provide female role-modeling and encourage female participation in athletics.	Athletic Director Principal, Assistant Principals, Athletic Director Athletic Director, Student Government Athletic Director Administration, Athletic Director	20-21 20-21 20-21 20-21 20-21

#1 / #8	While Sarasota High's planned action in 2019-20 showed significant improvements in female participation at both the Sub-Varsity & Varsity levels, there continues to be a slight lag in gender participation. The data indicates that there has been a measurable increase in effectively accommodating the interests and abilities of our female athletes on the Sarasota High campus. A continued plan of action to increase communication with districted middle schools and their female students, as well as offering more summer camp opportunities for females will be followed. The increased hiring of female coaches at the sub-varsity level will also promote more female participation.	Mark Aschenbrenner Athletic Director 941-955-0181	2020-21 School Year
